A vehicle bearing No.WB-2OH-6419 was found in possession of the two accused, i.e., this petitioner Md. Kalam and one Kundan Kumar. The police alleged that it was the vehicle obtained in theft. The police claimed to have questioned the present petitioner Md. Kalam who stated that he had sold seven other vehicles obtained in theft to different persons. One Manoj was said to be the man who had purchased the vehicle from the petitioner. That part of the story has been found not true. As regards the vehicle found in possession of the petitioner, it is not on the record, as per the submission of the learned Additional Public Prosecutor, that it was a vehicle obtained through theft.
